

Moon Cycle Blueprint for Prosperity

Messages from Kate

Dear Master Creator!

If you're new to the power of the moon phases, I believe you'll find this a fun, exciting process to bring greater prosperity into your life. If you've been working with the moon phases, I believe you'll find this a fresh perspective that produces miraculous, rewarding results!

May the manifestation of all the desires of your heart flow in ease and grace!

*In love and light,
Kate*

Florence Scovel Shinn teaches us that Love is the strongest magnetic force in the universe.

The movement of the sun, our moon and other planets in our cosmos affect the magnetic ebb and flow of energy on Mother Earth. The angels have shown me this fluctuation of magnetic energy to be of love origin. They've shown me the affect these waves of Christ Conscious energy have on our planet - both our human bodies and Mother Earth strive to align through ascension to this energy.

As your body aligns to this higher vibration of energy, lower vibrating less than love energy (Shadow Belief Energy) is revealed to heal to love. By healing this less than love energy, you are free to create from the love essence energy that you are, wonderful experiences that fill your heart with joy - your version of Heaven on Earth.

Those who are actively walking their spiritual path embracing the love that is their essence and healing the less than love energy that's revealed to them, flow in ease and grace through the fluctuating waves of Christ Conscious energy ascending higher and higher, fearlessly experiencing joy and happiness, and... knowing what to do when less than love energy is revealed to them.

However, we're all human, and at times, we get caught up in the fast pace of the physical world and find ourselves battered and bruised, fighting this expansion of energetic flow.

Florence Scovel Shinn teaches that the "darkness before the dawn" only lasts till we allow ourselves to see through the darkness.

The angels have shown me that when we feel as though we're struggling in the dark, we need only to sit quietly, ask them (our angels) to help us and breathe into our light.

As we breathe deeply, the angels work to fan the flame of light within to dissipate the darkness and bring in the Light! From this light that glows within us, the darkness dissolves and we can "see!" However, the glow of this light may reveal Shadow Belief Energy that has been hidden.

The Shadow Belief Energy that has held us back, comes forward begging to be healed. Its then up to us as to whether we face it, disconnect from it and heal it or stuff and suppress it back into the darkness.

The human illusion of fear of the unknown will want us to suppress this Shadow Belief Energy that's laced in fear, because it is painful. While our spiritual essence of love and light will want to pull it forward to heal it, knowing we are fully supported and it is safe to do so.

This Moon Cycle Blueprint to Prosperity will guide you to flow in ease and grace with the surge of love energy that your human body and Mother Earth intimately experience with each Full and New Moon Cycle.

The angels have given me this simple blueprint to work in tandem with the monthly cycle of the moon to not only flow in ease and grace consistently, but to also expand your inner guidance to magnificently create prosperity in whatever form prosperity is for you.

We create transformation and experience rebirth through the ascension of our energetic vibration. When our energy is of focusing on what we do not want, we create more of what we do not want. When our energy is of the higher vibration of joy we would experience at being, doing or having what we want, we create that joy filled experience as our reality.

The key to transformation from what you have to something better is the energy behind it. Be sure to adjust your "want energy" from the fear filled despair of wanting something that you don't have, to the "want energy" of the joy and excitement that receiving what you want will give you!

New Moon - A Portal for New Beginnings

The New Moon is a time that appears from the human eye, to be a time of darkness, yet its an opportunity for rebirth, transformation and is a portal for new beginnings. Its a perfect time to get intimate, absolute clarity on the energy of what you truly wish to experience. This could be receiving a material item, it could be a relationship, it could be expanding your spiritual awareness to understanding clearly the voice of God within your heart - whatever it is you wish to experience.

The New Moon provides a blank canvass for you to create the true desires of your heart, but you must know what the desire of your heart feels like. Its not necessary to know what it will look like, but if you do know what it looks like, demand/claim it - or something better!

Know that every intention of claiming and stepping into the higher vibration of love is fully supported by not only the angelic realm, but by Mother Earth as well.

To prepare for the New Moon, get clear on your intention of what you wish to create. It could be an energetic shift experience, such as forgiveness or expansion of your awareness to communication with the angelic realm, or it could be a tangible material physical world experience such as a new job, more money, a new home, a new car, new clothes, and/or a more loving or new relationship.

In the days leading up to the New Moon, gather visual images of what you wish to create as a New Moon collage or a vision board. The key is the energy behind the images, while the gathering and creation of the collage or vision board anchors the energy.

This gathering of your desires in a material format creates a living, breathing magical container of the energy you wish to manifest as your reality. It anchors and solidifies the molding of the raw creation energy of your thoughts and intentions to form as experiences and material objects in your physical reality.

On the date of the New Moon (or as close to it as you can) sit with your angels and your energetic collage of intention and use the New Moon Blueprint Form to guide you through completion of your intention.

If you can sit outside under the stars to meet with your angels, all the better! However, inside with eyes closed, you may still envision yourself in the center of the cosmos - as one with All That Is...

Ask your angels to guide you and show you any action steps you are to take to bring to your physical world existence your desires. Allow yourself to take in whatever is revealed to you.

Be aware that your angels may show you Shadow Belief Energy that stands between you and what you wish to experience. Ask them to help you bring it forward and use your tools and their help to face it, disconnect from it and heal it in all directions of time.

Claim what you want as yours and revisit the excited energy of expectancy daily, if possible, and address immediately any fearful Shadow Belief Energy that is revealed to you.

Abundance Check:

Many people write themselves an Abundance Check from the Bank of the Universe on the New Moon. This Blueprint takes writing an Abundance Check a step farther. Included in this blueprint are checks from the Bank of the Universe that you can write to you, PLUS... a blank deposit slip for your bank, AND checks from your Bank of Spirit for you to write to pay for whatever you want money for! These checks and deposit slips are intended to use privately to fully anchor your intentions and are not legal documents. Alter them in anyway you wish to make them the most powerful for you!

Have FUN!

Full Moon - A Time of Revelation to Magnify Manifestation

When the view of the moon is full, it has completed its cycle, representing completion and transformation.

The energy of the Full Moon amplifies your intuition to reveal what has been hidden from you. Its a time to allow yourself to "see" the moving parts of what you wish to create. Its a time to open your arms wide to even deeper clarity of your intentions. Its a time to allow yourself to "see" what the Light reveals to you that no longer serves you.

Use the Light energy of the Full Moon to reflect on what you set into motion during the previous two week New Moon cycle. You may discover that what you set into motion during the New Moon isn't important to you any longer...

Or the outcome you wish to experience may look different requiring a course correction...

Or you may now be firmly anchored in what you wish to experience with manifestation only moments away...

Or you may have received and are in active celebration of having manifested what you wished for or better since the previous New Moon!

The Full Moon is a time to breathe deeply into your heart space and with the help of your angels and the powerful energy of the Full Moon look at any darkness of resistance within you. This resistance may directly affect what you wish to transform or create in your life. Use the Full Moon Blueprint Form and ask your angels to hold the safe space for you to clearly see what no longer serves you.

What is revealed to you could be a belief, a thought pattern, a relationship, the need to carry excess weight, guilt, shame, unforgiveness - any energy that is no longer of your highest good. Discern what it is, then set the intention to heal it. Use your tools to face, disconnect and heal this energy - in all directions of time.

Then boldly claim what you wish to create and ask your angels to show you the moving parts and the action steps you are to take to bring to fruition what makes your heart sing with joy.

Then celebrate! Celebrate receiving and/or achieving what you've set your intention to experience - when there is no sign of it in sight!

You are the leading character in your life story! No matter what your life looks like, no matter what you've done or haven't done in your life, you deserve to live a life of joy and happiness!
